Requirements for a Minor in History

A minor in history consists of six three-hour history courses (18 hours). Only one 100-level course may count on the minor.

Within the 18 hours, the following requirements apply:

1. Must complete 1 course from three distribution areas (3 total): non-western, early modern, modern, and multi-/transnational
2. Of the three history elective courses, at least two must be numbered 200 or higher
3. At least one course counting toward the minor must be at or above the 300-level
